INTRODUCTON

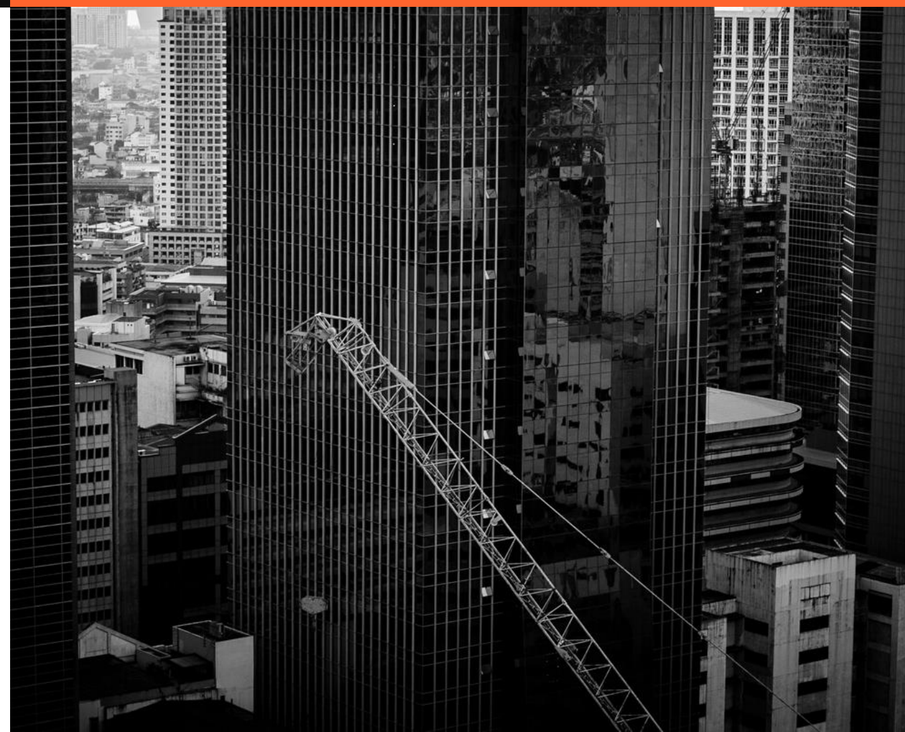

“If you want to be happy, be like that.” To do so, it is necessary to develop and maintain a positive attitude. You have to be the one to color the picture of your life. However, not everyone can stay positive when they are under too much pressure, especially life pressure. Typically in recent days, the story of a young female teacher who committed suicide is spreading all over the newspaper. This makes the topic "Suicide in teachers" never cease to be hot.

CAUSE

- Work pressure, pressure from colleagues, from superiors leads to the maximum pressure, making them no longer awake.
- The result of a process of repressing frustrations, disappointments or suffering about life that is not as expected.
- Because there is no place to rely on, share your difficulties.
- May be due to medical conditions: depression, emotional disorders, ...

CONSEQUENCES

- Leaving tragic consequences for relatives, sadness for friends.
- Creating negative effects in society, many young people will think that suicide is the only solution when life has too many difficulties and pressures.

CONSEQUENCES

- In particular, the increasing number of teachers committing suicide has partly caused young people and parents to lose faith in the teaching profession. Students who don't want to attend and their parents don't want their children to pursue a career that faces so much pressure and psychological risk. Can lead to a shortage of teachers.

SOLUTION

SOLUTION

- Schools should have an additional department staffed by psychologists. This room has the effect of sharing and motivating, creating trust for teachers who have difficulties that cannot be solved or explained. At the same time, it will help teachers recognize the difficulty is obvious and suggest ways to overcome it.

SOLUTION

- Usually, before looking for death, victims often have unusual expressions, actions, words, etc. Therefore, the staff of this office will recognize the danger from the colleagues. From there, there is a timely solution.

SOLUTION

- Moreover, if they cannot share with anyone, they can contact the project "Tomorrow" hotline at: 096.306.1414. This is a toll-free hotline dedicated to helping people with depression. They can share with the volunteers, experts at this address to feel lighter.

CONCLUSION

“Is today a good day for you? Will you have luck today or just trouble?” The real answer lies in how you feel and seek happiness. Get used to being happy by ourselves because we are the ones who determine our own happiness. Happiness or unhappiness depends on how you think. As long as you constantly seek and create your own happiness, happiness will come at the most unexpected moments.
