1. Introducing about yourself

I am Bui Ngoc Bao Tran, a K17 student majoring in software engineering at FPT Quy Nhon University. I am a quite energetic person and always want to improve more about the language and the necessary skills. I hope to have the opportunity to join the company to devote all my abilities and improve and develop myself more and more.

2. What are three of your greatest strengths ?

- The strength that makes me most confident is flexibility. I think this is the factor that helps me to solve all problems as well as streamline my work order. Therefore, being flexible in urgent situations also helps me to suppress negative emotions and calmly solve problems.
- Another factor I want to mention in the section of strengths is the determination of myself. I won't be swayed by my decision after careful consideration. Although this is a bit extreme, I believe in seeing and evaluating a problem on my own.

3. What are three of your weakness ?

My shortcoming is that I am very forgetful, I cannot keep many tasks in my head at the same time. But I believe I can improve this weakness by writing it down on paper or taking notes on my phone. With those powerful support tools, I think my weakness will no longer be a big problem.

4. Why should we hire you ?

I think what makes me stand out from the crowd is that I am quite meticulous and pay attention to small details. I always want everything I do to be perfect. I want all directions for my plan to be carefully planned before implementation, even the worst possible situations must be prepared. I will not work where the probability of success is low. For me, the time I spend on a project is not as important as the results I get after my efforts.

5. Describe a leader you admire ?

A leader I admire is someone who has the ability to inspire and motivate the members to complete the task in the best way. Moreover, a good leader is one who has the ability to properly divide the work and is able to resolve conflicts between members well.

6. Tell me about a time you had to extend a deadline ?

A time I had to extend my deadline is:

These are times when there are too many deadlines with more importance and more urgent time. The postponed deadline will be the articles of least importance and have the least impact on the learning process.

7. Where do you see yourself in five years ?

5 - 10 years after university, my goal is to get a job in a position that is suitable for the major I am cultivating. Economic stability as well as other minor issues. If possible, I would like to advance in the field that I am pursuing.

8. Why are you leaving your current job ?

The reason I left my current job is:

I feel like I'm ready to take on more responsibility. I want to challenge myself more, but I can only accept familiar jobs and cannot spark innovation and creativity.

9. Why do you feel you would be a good fit for this position ?

I think I'm suitable for this position because I have a lot of experience related to this topic. I have also experienced and tried on related topics, so I am confident that I can do a good job in this field.

10. What do you look for in a good supervisor ?

The characteristics of a supervisor that I hope to find are: Always helping and accompanying employees to grow together. A good supervisor will not scrutinize his employees' mistakes to make credit.

11. If you were hired, how could your supervisor help you do the best on the job ?

If I were hired, the things a supervisor can do to help me in my work are: Be willing to lead and answer my questions, always accompany me for at least the first month in a new job. I will do my best not to let my supervisor down.

12. Tell me about your relationship with your curent and past supervisor ?

My past supervisor was a pretty nice person who was willing to help me. However, he did not allow me to express my creativity, but always forced me to follow the available path.

13. In your previous experience, would you say you were known for taking initiative ? If so, provide an example.

I would take the initiative, I actively manage my working time, proactively propose ideas in case of work problems.

14. Do you prefer a stable day – to – day routine or a dynamic constantly changing envirionment ?

I like a dynamic working environment, because there I can experience many new environments, meet new people and interact with many different cultures. It will enrich my life and my experiences.

15. How well do you handle crticism ?

I understand that criticism is inevitable, so I always accept criticism in the most positive way, always seeing it as an opportunity to grow and build myself. Since then, it has gotten better and better.

16. Tell me something about yourself that I will not find in your resumé ?

As mentioned in the previous question, I am a pretty consistent and flexible worker. I feel that these are two quite necessary factors in life, as well as ensuring the criteria that the company has set. Moreover, I am also quite thorough in all my plans and actions. And I believe, I will be a solid link in the overall company.

17. Tell me about a time when you showed real determination ?

When I really show my determination is when I have set myself a goal and start planning to accomplish it. I will try my best until I get the desired result.

18. How do you manage stress in your daily work ?

How I manage stress: listen to music. It may be hard to believe but I can relieve stress by doing this common sense. When I listen to music, I feel comfortable and easily get rid of all thoughts. I can imagine many things and relax listening to music.

19. What do you bring to this job that is unique and would make us want to hire you ?

What I feel confident that I am special and stand out from others, is that I am quite meticulous. I will take care of every little detail. Maybe for some people, this is extreme, however, with the orientation to become an employee in the field they are pursuing, this is a necessary virtue.

20. What would your ideal job be like ?

An ideal job in my opinion: First, it should be a job that I enjoy. Next, it fits the ability and is not too constrained to any framework.

21. Do you prefer working alone or in a group ?

This will be a question depending on the circumstances. In the case of a job that needs to be solved quickly and needs to make a quick decision, I will choose to work in a team. On the contrary, with a job that requires meticulousness, high accuracy and not too time constraints, I will choose to work in groups to achieve the highest efficiency in work.

22. Why do you want to work here ?

The reason I want to work here is because I recognize the similarities in my abilities with the requirements of the job. I want to contribute in a dynamic and effective environment like here.
